REPORT

Date January 28, 1932.

Subject (in full) Shanghai Newspaper Publication During State of Emergency.

Made by and Forwarded by C.D.I. Prince

Sir,

I have to report that in view of a possible general strike which would adversely affect the publication of daily newspapers, (Foreign) Mr. H. Ellis, Manager of the Linotype Company, No. 13 Edward VII Avenue, has made special arrangements, with the editors of the principal foreign daily newspapers, to run a battery of machines in his premises at the above address to supply prepared type for the publication of foreign newspapers. In view of the above, and the fact that the Shanghai Times is considered to be a pro-Japanese publication, it is premised that an attack may be made by reactionary elements on the above premises. Mr. Ellis therefore asks that the Police on duty in the vicinity will pay extra attention to his offices.

N.B. The Offices of the Shanghai Times are situated in the same building as the abovementioned offices

To S.I.,

The publication of this report has led to a strike of the employees of Honigsberg & Son who requests that the Police should assist in ascertaining what the grievances of the strikers are.

Please co-operate with B. Well Station in investigating the matter.
